Ward 5 Official Plan Review Public Meeting

The City of Burlington is currently undertaking a review of its Official Plan – the policy document that guides land use planning decisions over the long-term.

A draft amended Official Plan and corresponding draft zoning by-laws has been prepared and referred by Council to the public for review. The draft document can be accessed on-line at www.burlington.ca or by contacting the City of Burlington planning department at 905-335-7642.

Councillor Jack Dennison invites you to attend an Official Plan Review public meeting on:

February 21, 7 – 9 p.m.
Paletta Mansion, Cumis Room, 4250 Lakeshore Road

Although a wide range of topics are under review, topics of discussion will include:

- Fairview Street mixed use corridor
- Institutional uses in employment zones
- Second dwelling units

Planning staff will offer a brief presentation. A question and answer period will follow.

Burlington Transit Transit Service Review Open House

As part of the 2006-2015 Transit Service Review, Burlington Transit will be holding an open house to discuss future transit operations and service.

Burlington Transit is conducting a transit service review in order to enhance the transit system's efficiency and effectiveness over the next ten years. The review will identify opportunities to reduce auto dependence and encourage the use of transit.

Transit staff will be available to discuss the findings of the study at this meeting. Members of the public interested in public transit are invited to attend the meeting to review the study materials and provide comments that will be considered in the final report being prepared by staff.

Wednesday, March 1, 2006

1 p.m. to 3 p.m.
Burlington Seniors' Centre
2285 New Street
Presentation: 1:30 p.m.

For any additional information on these meetings or on the Transit Service Review, please call 905-639-0550.
